

The East Carolina University Student Conduct Board is housed within the Office of Student Rights & Responsibilities. The board is comprised of students, faculty & professional staff, who have been trained to hear suspension and/or expulsion level cases.

Serving on the Conduct Board is an excellent leadership opportunity. Members serve the ECU community and gain transferable skills that make them more competitive when applying for a job or graduate school.

1 Training Opportunities

Our trainings not only cover skills needed to serve on the board, but skills and topics that can aid in your future career!

2 Flexible Scheduling

Our trainings and meetings are recorded if you are unable to attend the live sessions. Hearings are scheduled case by case so you are able to have control of your availability!

3 Networking and Leadership

Serving as a Conduct Board member, you will work along with professional staff and faculty members. It also provides opportunities to serve on committees and teams with Deans and Vice Chancellors!

4 Career Growth

Our Conduct Board members have used this experience to attain careers in law, government, leadership, and more!
